JERUSALEM 2018

The 6th Global Forum for Combating Antisemitism

Jerusalem, 19-21 March 2018

The Global Forum for Combating Antisemitism (GFCA) is the premier biennial international gathering for assessing the state of antisemitism globally and formulating effective forms of societal and governmental response.

The GFCA is an active coalition of public figures, political leaders, heads of civil society, clergy, journalists, diplomats, educators, researchers and concerned citizens dedicated to the advance of tolerance towards the other in public life and the defeat of antisemitism and other forms of racial and ethnic hatred. The Global Forum serves as an important meeting place for the exchange of knowledge and for formulating the strategy for combating antisemitism worldwide.

The Global Forum will open Monday evening, March 19th and will be addressed by the attending world leaders. Tuesday, March 20th is devoted to plenary sessions on the main thematic issues of GFCA 2018. On Wednesday, March 21st, the expert action-panels will convene for action based and inclusive discussion. The Final Statements of the GFCA 2018 will be drafted in the course of the forum and presented for adoption at the concluding session.

Cocktail Party and Opening Ceremony, March 19th

The forum will open on the evening of March 19th at the International Conference Center in Jerusalem with a cocktail party followed by addresses by heads of state and government ministers. For further information, please contact gfca2018@gmail.com
